CHOCOLATES

Discover your love for chocolate

Seemed like a dream in 1983

...to think American-made chocolates could earn a place next to the Belgians, the Swiss, the French. But that's right where I set my sights.

To get there, every piece had to measure up. Ingredients. Taste. Design. Service. Everything.

That's why we chose to make and pack our own chocolates in Vermont (still do), rather than outsource. And it's the reason employees are like family here.

It's also why this company is Fair for Life Social & Fair Trade Certified. Because great chocolate depends on people. From the farmer who grows the cacao to the person who packages your order, and everyone in between. Each deserves a fair shake.

You can expect the best in chocolate from us. That means the way our products are made, as well as how they taste. Come visit us online to learn more!
